

The 90th Annual Convention of ΗΣΦ at Dickinson College

Greetings from the Delta Theta Chapter at Dickinson College, your host for the 90th Eta Sigma Phi convention. Join us on March 23-25, 2018, in Carlisle, Penn., for festive and intellectual pursuits. The event will include stimulating presentations of student research; a certamen; the traditional banquet (classical dress encouraged!); a rousing Latin declamation contest; interesting presentations by local classicists; and, of course, the camaraderie of your fellow classical enthusiasts. The convention will begin with a reception on Friday evening, March 23, and end with the final business session at 12 o'clock on Sunday, March 25. Mark your calendars, because you won't want to miss this!

Further information will be available at www.etasigmaphi.org/conventions in the fall.
