

Eta Sigma Phi Summer
H.R. Butts Scholarship
for Fieldwork in Classical Archaeology
Application Cover Sheet

1. Name _____

Address _____

_____

Phone _____ E-mail _____

2. Eta Sigma Phi Experience

Initiation year and institution:

_____

Activities and participation:

_____

_____

3. School at which you are currently enrolled (if applicable) and address:

_____

_____

_____

4. Degree for which you are a candidate (if applicable) and expected date of graduation (or describe post-baccalaureate status here if applicable):

_____

5. School at which you are currently teaching (if applicable) and address:

_____

_____

_____

6. Field school or fieldwork for which you would use the scholarship:

---

---

7. Current status of acceptance to field school or fieldwork for which you would use the scholarship (check one—applicants are to have contacted the director or program before application):

- initial query made to director or program formal application made to director or program acceptance to program already received

Further explanation (if applicable):

---

---

8. Please enclose the following items, or arrange for them to be sent to the committee:

- a. A statement, not exceeding 500 words, describing your background and preparation for the field experience to which you are applying and how participation in this experience fits your future plans.
- b. A budget outlining your expenses for participating in this field school or fieldwork, and any other funding you may receive. It is the understanding of Eta Sigma Phi that the sum of all scholarships and grants will not exceed the expenses that this program will require (travel, lodging, tuition, and so on).
- c. Two letters of recommendation, either in a sealed envelope or sent directly to the committee from the reviewer. Appropriate recommenders include, for example, a current or former professor, a department head, or a principal.
- d. Official transcripts of all undergraduate work and from your post-graduate institution (if applicable).

Please send your application as an attachment via e-mail, to

Professor Daniel Levine
Professor Emeritus, Classical Studies
Fulbright College, University of Arkansas
Email: dlevine@uark.edu

ANNUAL APPLICATION DEADLINE: FEBRUARY 15th.